THIS WEEK'S BLURB

Hi Church.

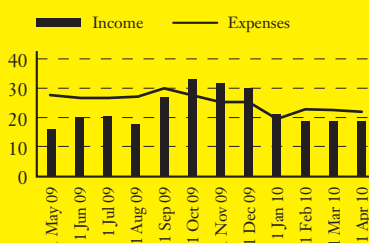

A central and inescapable theme of the Bible is the issue of how each of us as individuals respond to the Word of God. So much seems to hang on this that God is able to identify it as the core factor that will determine the ultimate quality of human existence. In Deuteronomy chapter 8, verse three, we read; "...people do not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord". This Word that comes to us from God's mouth and is able to bring life, originates in God's personal relationship with us and is not some generalised "one size fits all" deal that we may shrug off, ignore or rationalise because we feel that our particular life situation is an exception to the rule. This word is an intensely personal communication of truth from God's heart to ours. It will be tailor made for our circumstances, for our personality, for our particular level of maturity. In Hebrews chapter 4 verse 12 we find a description of this communication that reads, "For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart". You cannot get any more personal, more intimately involved than that! God and His word engages with us in the privacy of our internal thoughts and attitudes: no one else can get that close. Such intimacy demands an appropriate response.

The previous chapter twice reiterates the phrase, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your heart's". This emphasis is because the eventual outcome of our life will hinge on two things, firstly; hearing his voice, and then secondly; responding to what he is saying. As Jesus put it, "My sheep hear my voice and they follow me". There is no better way to live than this.

Best blessings,
Hamish and Di.
