THIS WEEK'S BLURB

The Bible provides an amazing narrative as well as a series of narratives for us. Its pages are full of extraordinary examples of people's lives that have experienced the thrill of triumph. However, what I love about the scriptures, is that right there beside the triumphs, is the recording of tragedies, sorrows and immense loss, often among the very same heroes/heroines. The Bible tells these stories 'warts and all', for our instruction. This provides us, the readers, God's children, with extraordinary hope. That, no matter what our circumstances, our failures, our losses, our gains, or our wonderful victories and triumphs, there is a way to remain in faith and close to the One who loves us and is committed to us. In my opinion Romans chapter 8 captures some of these thoughts absolutely brilliantly, and especially when and where Paul writes expounds these ideas in Romans chapter 8:26-39

26In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. 27And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will. 28And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, [j] who [k] have been called according to his purpose. 29For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. 31What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? 33Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. 34Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. 35Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” [l] 37No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, [m] neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God Bless heaps
